

Janice Beddome
Psychologist

Janice Beddome is a highly experienced psychologist with over 20 years of expertise gained conducting assessments for children and adolescents with Intellectual and Learning Disabilities. Her commitment to her field is evident through her extensive work history. Janice served as a School Psychologist with the Victorian Department of Education and Training from 2002 to 2008. She then went on to work as a Contract Psychologist with both Lewis & Lewis Psychological Services from 2007 to 2014 and Assessments Australia from 2015 to 2022. Janice was also a senior member of the Psychologist team at SPELD Victoria - Learning Disabilities Association, for a number of years, providing valuable insights and support to individuals and families affected by learning disabilities. Registered with AHPRA and a member of the Australian Psychological Society, Janice ensures that she stays up-to-date with the latest research and best practices in the field of psychology. Janice Beddome's expertise and experience make her an integral member of the Stars Psychology team.